

I agree with with the propasal set by the American Radio Relay League (AARL) and that this propasal will benefit both the ham community and the need to reduce the reliance on morse code.